

Wind Resource Studies

ORTECH Provides the Right Solution for Your Site

Data Assessment

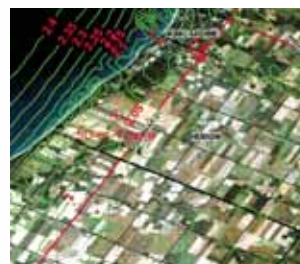

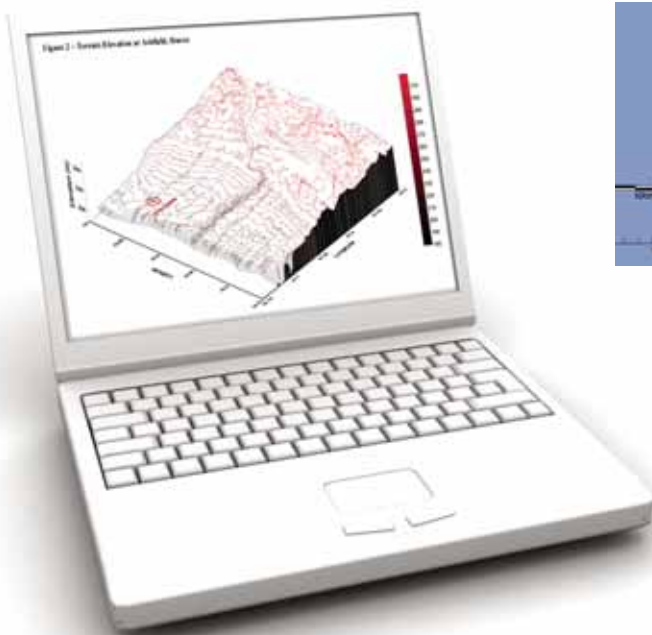

ORTECH staff will compile historical data for your region and assess the data for wind energy potential assisted by both Federal and Provincial wind maps.

On-Site Monitoring

To confirm initial wind resource estimates, ORTECH staff will conduct on site monitoring using the most-up-to-date equipment.

Modelling

Using the most recently developed Canadian and European models our modelling experts will produce a wind atlas and annual predicted energy production information for your site.
